IS ALL ABOUT JOY – PURE, HEARTFELT, AND UNFORGETTABLE

GIVING LIGHT AND JOY

Nyakallo means joy, and that's exactly what we deliver. We visit children's homes, spreading laughter, love, and unforgettable moments. From groceries to toys, we're here to remind every child that they matter, because every child deserves joy.

PROJECT FUDUMALA

Spreading warmth in the streets of Johannesburg. We hand out blankets and second-hand clothes to our homeless friends, offering comfort, care, and dignity during the cold months. Because everyone deserves a little warmth.

PREPARATION DAY

Before the laughter and hugs at BULA MAHLO Children's Home, our team faced a different kind of mission, they were at Shoprite early in the morning.

Armed with a list and a heart full of purpose, we navigated aisles packed with toys, carefully balancing our selections to ensure both boys and girls would receive something meaningful. It was no easy task. From dolls to cars, puzzles to playsets, we had to stretch every cent while thinking of every child.

After the purchase, the real work began: sorting through multiple black man bags we had collected beforehand. These bags were packed with donated items, a mix of toys, clothes, and surprises. We inspected each piece with care, setting aside those that were clean, whole, and reusable. This part of the day was long, and honestly, exhausting, but our hearts were full. Every item sorted meant one more smile, one more child feeling seen. We turned a simple Saturday into something special and it was all worth it.

BULA MAHLO DAY

On Bula Mahlo Day, we packed every car to the brim with donations and set off on the long road to Tembisa. Despite the early start and heavy loads, our spirits were high.

Upon arrival, we were greeted with warmth and kindness by Ma Regina Sekgobela, whose welcome instantly made us feel at home. The atmosphere at Bula Mahlo was filled with peace, joy, and a quiet kind of magic. Surrounded by the vibrant energy of the children and the beautiful grounds, our team couldn't resist tapping into their inner child, laughing, bonding, and joining in on the simple games painted on the pavement. It reminded us that joy is often found in the smallest, most playful moments.
